Footnotes:

1/ The period covered by any statement begins on the day after the closing date of the last statement filed, or January 1, if no previous statement has been filed.

2/ The April 30 odd-year report is triggered if the committee makes contributions totaling $10,000 or more to state officeholders or committees primarily formed to support or oppose any state officeholder during the corresponding period.

3/ In addition to paper reports, a committee must file electronically if, beginning January 1, 2000, the committee receives contributions or makes expenditures totaling $50,000 or more. For more information, visit the Secretary of State's web site at www.ss.ca.gov.

4/ File the statement due October 10, 2003, if contributions or independent expenditures totaling $500 or more are made to candidates or measures being voted on March 2, 2004, between July 1 and September 30, 2003.

File the statement due October 31, 2003, if contributions of $10,000 or more are made to elected state officeholders or committees primarily formed to support or oppose state officeholders not being voted on March 2, 2004, during the corresponding period.

5/ This report is required if a committee required to file electronically with the Secretary of State makes an independent expenditure of $1,000 or more in connection with a state candidate or a state ballot measure being voted on March 2, 2004.

6/ Because January 10, 2004, falls on a Saturday, this filing deadline is extended to January 12, 2004.

Additional Notes:

- There is no provision in the law for an extension of the filing deadline. Late statements are subject to a $10 per day late fine.
- All statements are public documents.
- State candidates and committees are subject to contribution limits. (Gov. Code §§ 85301, 85302 and 85303.)
- A committee may also be required to file a supplemental preelection statement if the committee makes contributions totaling $10,000 or more in connection with an election held in 2003.
- A committee may be required to file late independent expenditure reports or late contribution reports if the committee makes independent expenditures or contributions totaling $1,000 or more in connection with an election held in 2003. Contact the FPPC for specific requirements.
